Dear Mike
you are a 'crazy
idiot'. Mary says
you're sweet though!
Remember science is fun.
Linda Mrs. Dale

P.S.
I really didn't mean it about you being an idiot.

Dear Mike
I have known
you for a long time and you are a very nice boy.

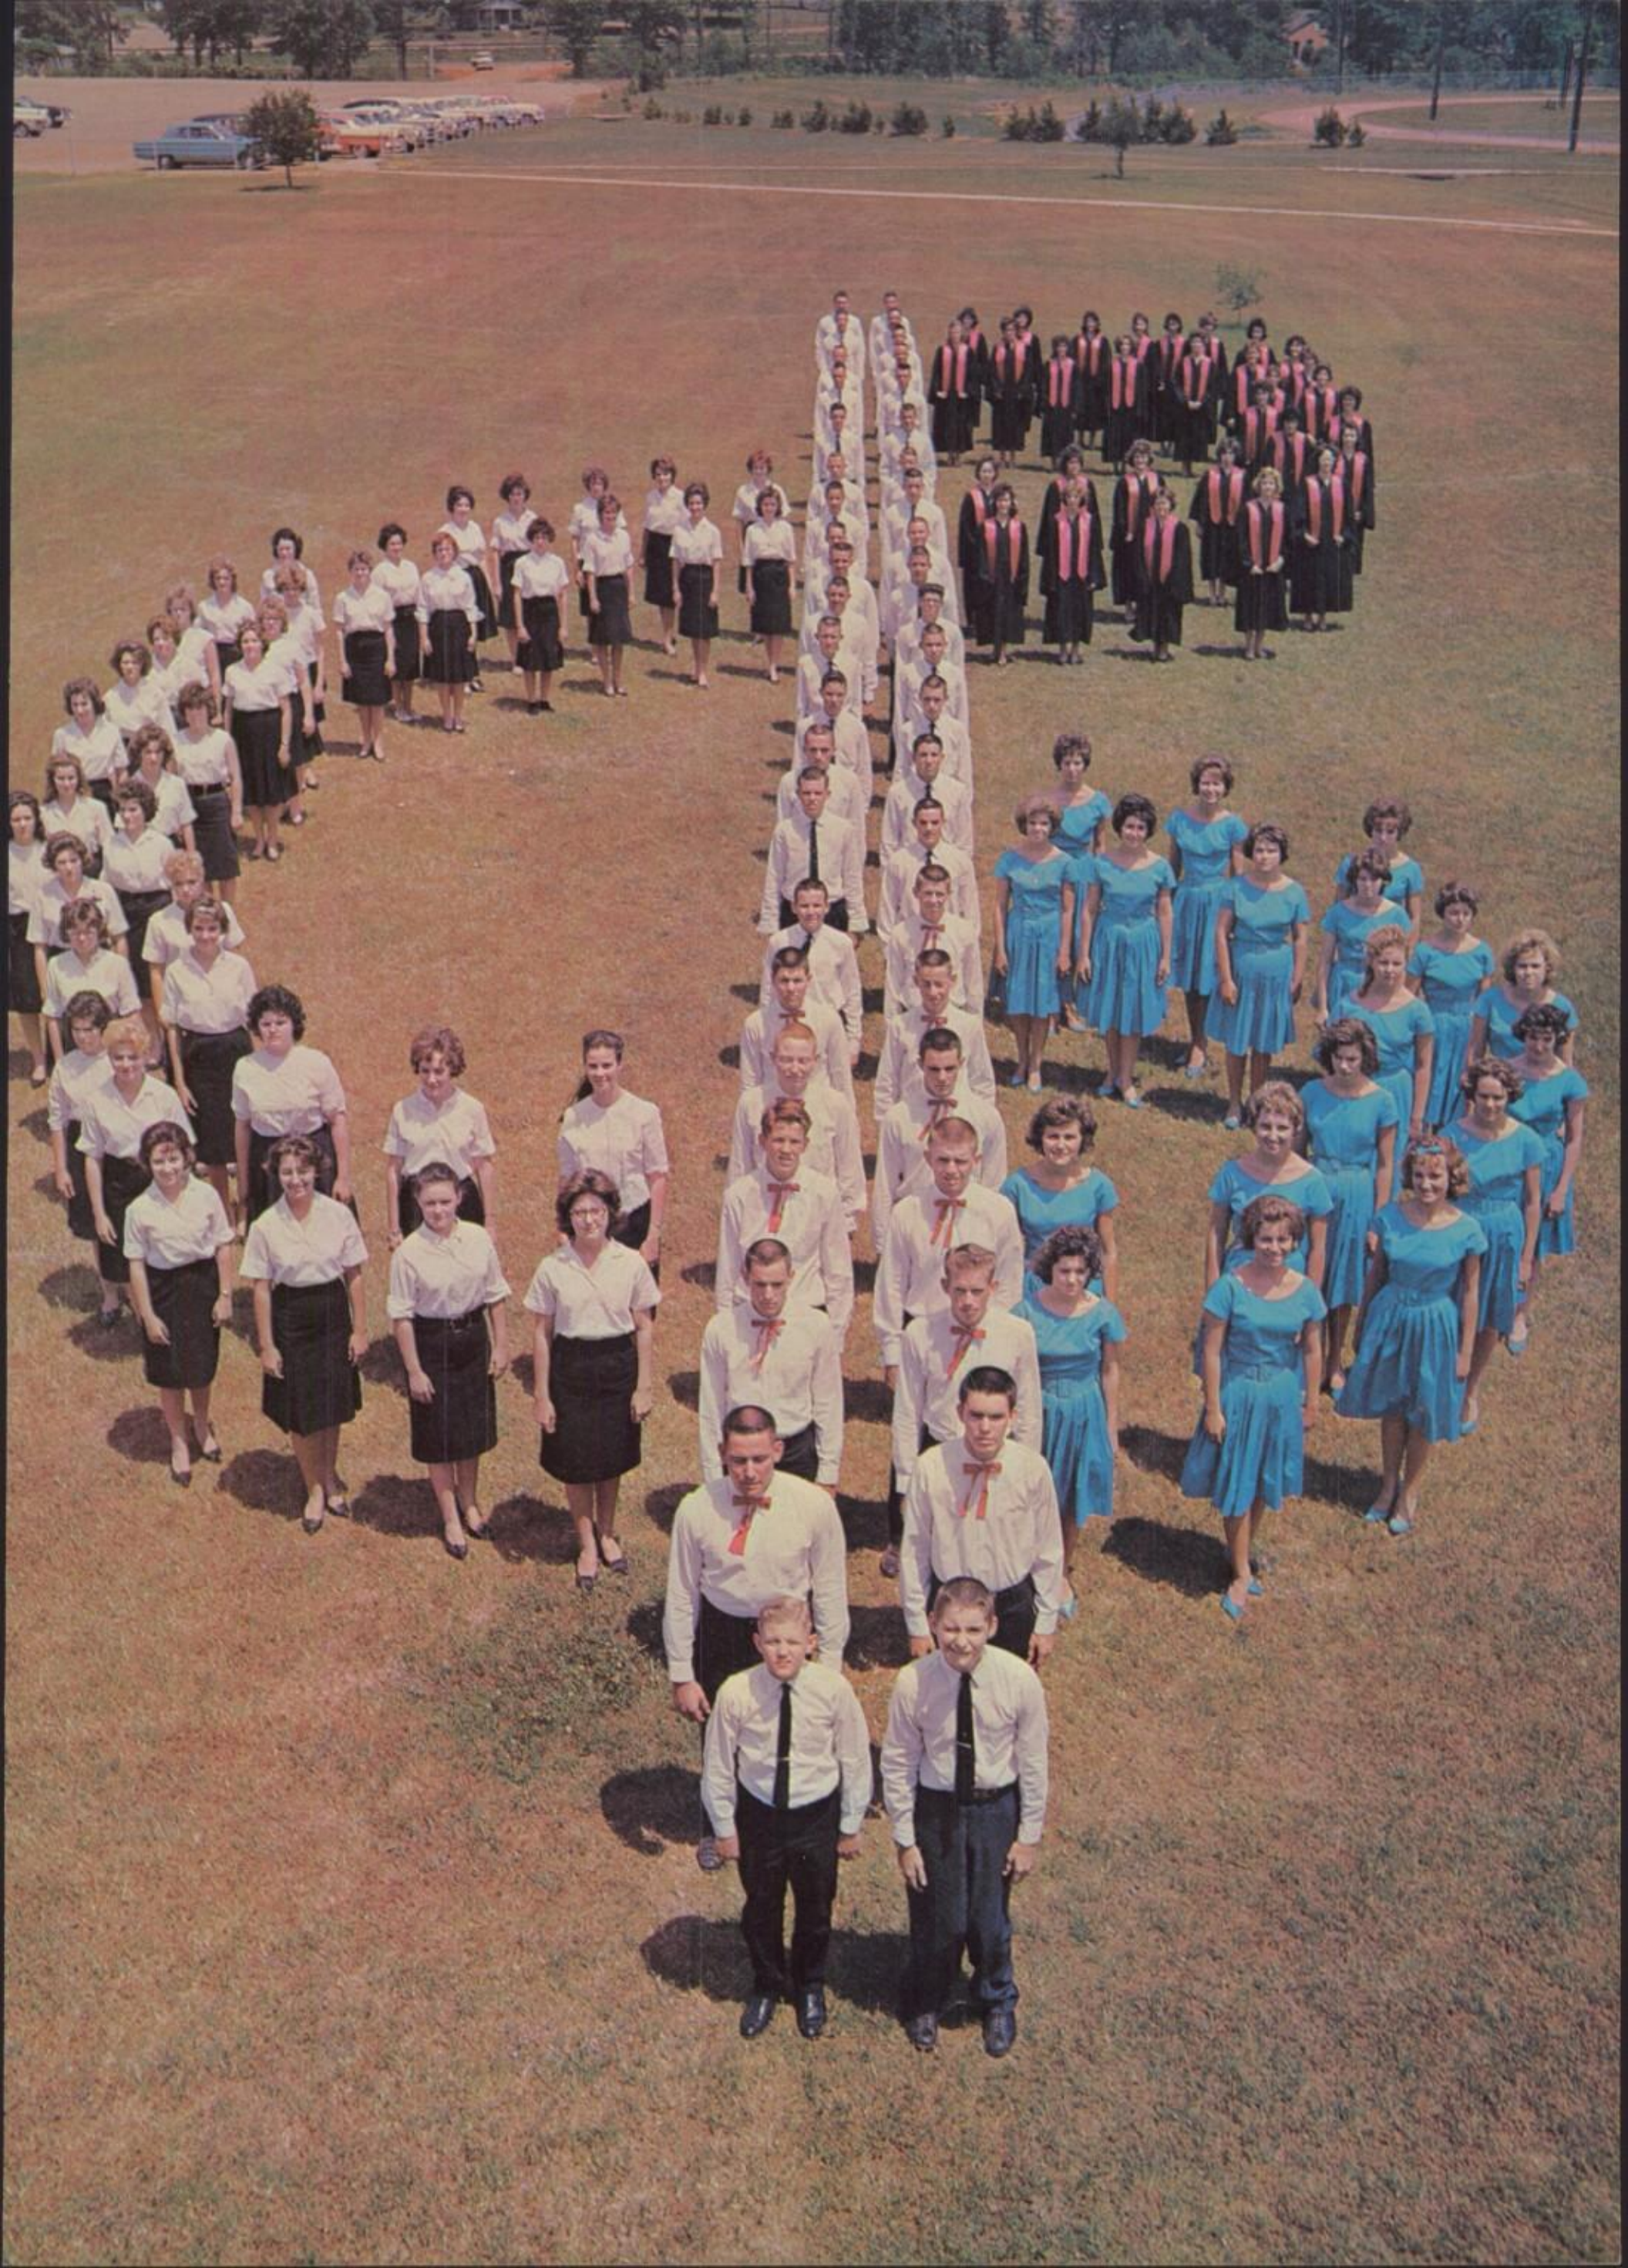
Mike, Its been nice knowing you and having science with you. Stay as sweet a little boy as you are now.
Charlotte
Phil
Good luck always,
Glynn Oakes
Your a real nice sweet kind boy, Smitty,

To one traveling on the highway, North Caddo would seem to be just another public school. Therefore we must take a look at what it really is. As the only high school in the community North Caddo is truly a landmark. Its teachers and students have gained many honors, thus establishing the school academically. The athletic teams have given evidence that the school is a power to be reckoned with.

North Caddo students have shown their character by active participation in the activities of the community. These students return to their homes to set an example as future leaders of the country.

Yes, one must take a good look to actually see the many intricacies of school life at North Caddo.

North Caddo is proud of its Choir which is under the direction of Mr. Robert Ferrington.



Ruth Oxford, Coe McKenzie, Dorothy Smith and Betty Lanier kick high at a pep rally.

Billy McNamara is ushering at a football game.

Wayne Gray and Bill Smith relax before going on the gridiron.

These students are concentrating on passing that very important six weeks test.

Mike Reed tests his muscles while others look on.

Dorothy Smith, William Bauer, Sally Bain, Diana' Riley, and Coe McKenzie keep Mrs. McKenzie company

Jean Price displays a new N.C. megaphone.

Miss Cooper explains the fundamentals of English grammar to a junior girl, Darlene Strayn.

Betty Carol waits for the bus to take her to Mansfield.

Christy Hoots and Mr. McCluggage are ready for another football game:

A group of football boys entertain at the Football Banquet.

Jerry Newman studies hard for any American History test and enjoys it.

William Bauer takes a rest after helping make a cannon for Homecoming.

Mrs. Hartline keeps the office running smoothly and helps students with their problems. Norma Hartline

Johnny Harrell exerts his strength as others look on.

A group of band students on their way to Springhill.

Miss Allen and Miss Loper enjoy the food at the Football Banquet.

Mike Twitchell and Louise Wilson do some simple math in preparing for the fundamentals of Algebra.

These students enjoy the pep rally with the noise makers.

Peggy Humphrey, Shirley Riley and James Roberts enjoy Macbeth in third period English.

Curriculum

1963

Communication Is the Key to All Knowledge

In Journalism, The "Southern Accent" is published. Nina Poston works on the make-up of ad sheets.

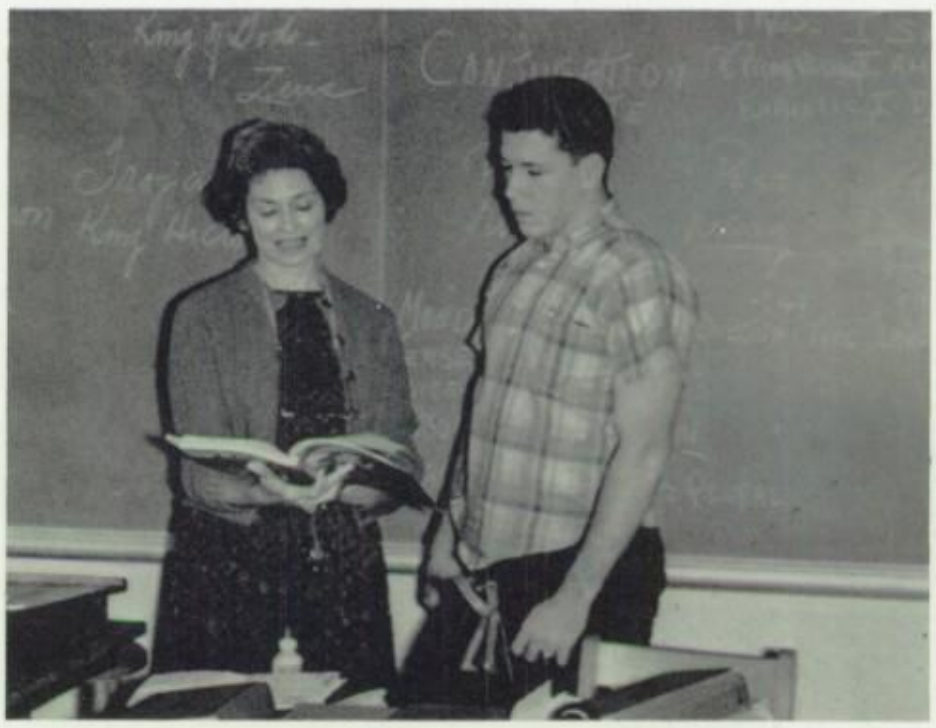
Clarice White and Jeannie Holland enjoy literature.

Sharon Luce and Jane Fitts diagram sentences in English class.

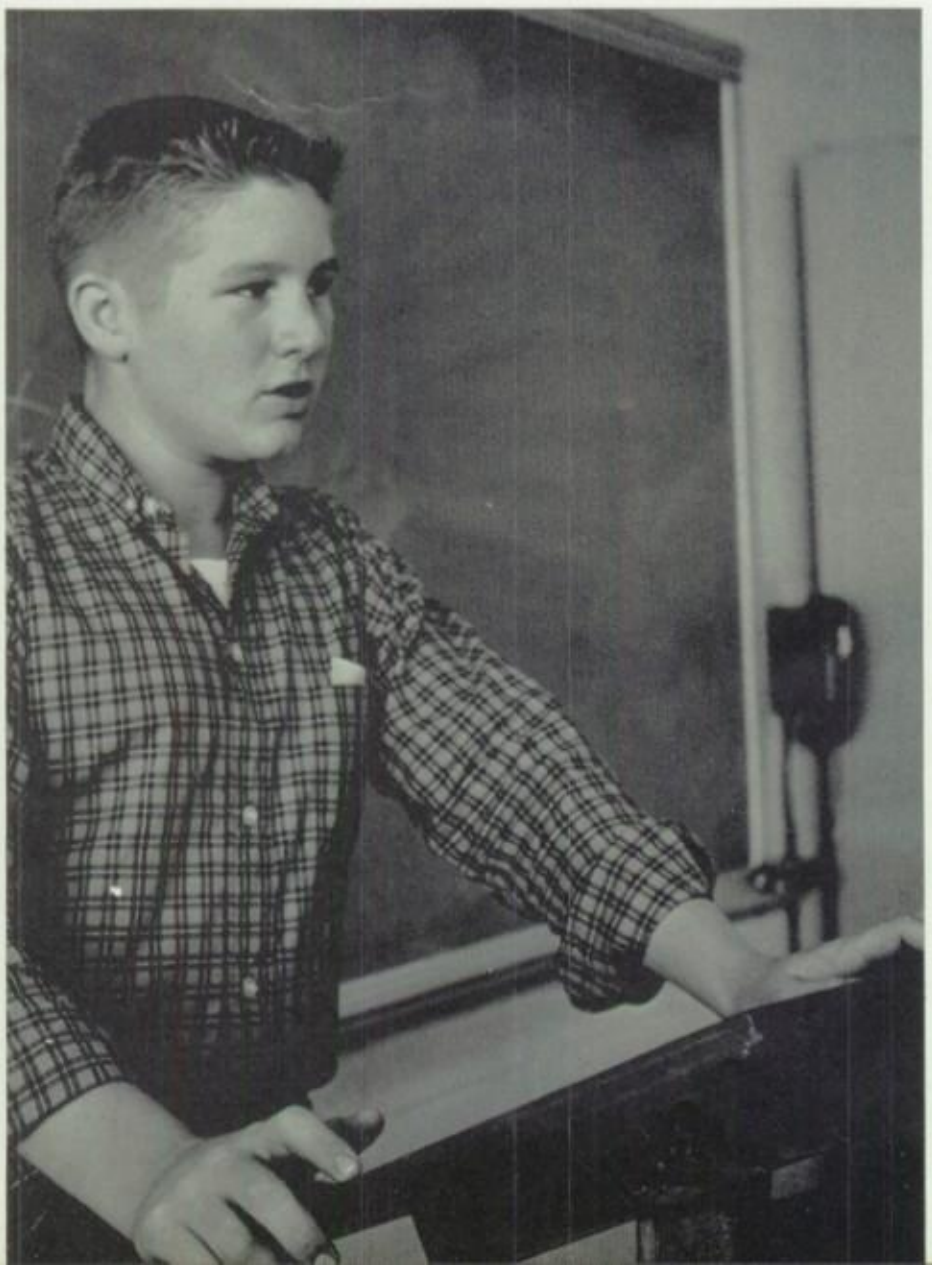
In English I, Diana Riley and Sonya Loyd learn the use of the dictionary and the correct usage of words.

Cecilia Slaughter, Brian Posey, and Whyley McCord are learning to speak Spanish. Bull Fighter posters, Sombreros, and Records all give this room the scene of Spain.

Sterlene Graves translates Latin to English on the board. She also learns to speak Latin.



Mrs. Gleason shows Alfred Bridges the correct usage of verbs.



Charles Moon tells the 3rd period speech class of the beauties of Caddo Lake.

Business Courses Train for Tomorrow

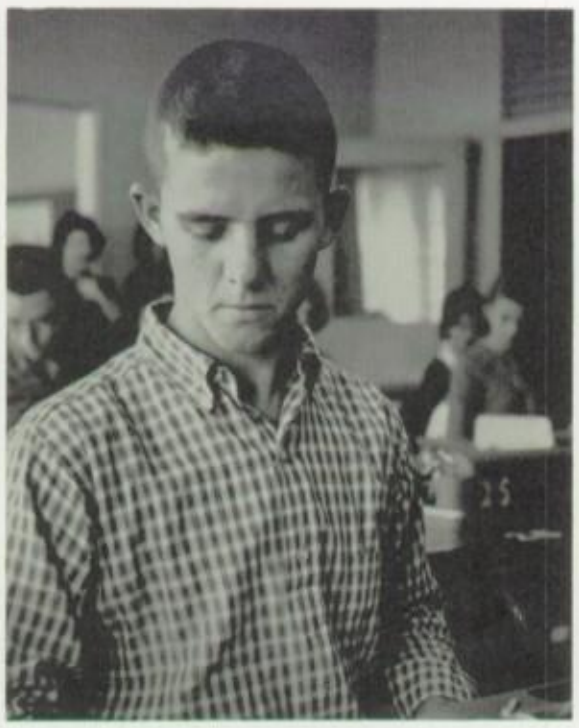
In Bookkeeping, balancing of accounts is one of the many processes that Sharon Farmer learns.

In shorthand, we learn to read and write. Shirley McCathran writes a letter in shorthand.



Desirable finger movements along with the effort are important in typing. Frank Wynn tries hard to become an expert.

Judy Whatley and Carolyn Brooks use adding machines to add up long accounts in Clerical Practice.

Mrs. Elder explains to her 3rd period typing class letter writing.

Social Studies Teach Good Citizenship

Don Spurlin is studying the fundamentals of how our government works in a Civics class.

These students are learning as they are given an opportunity to study in class.

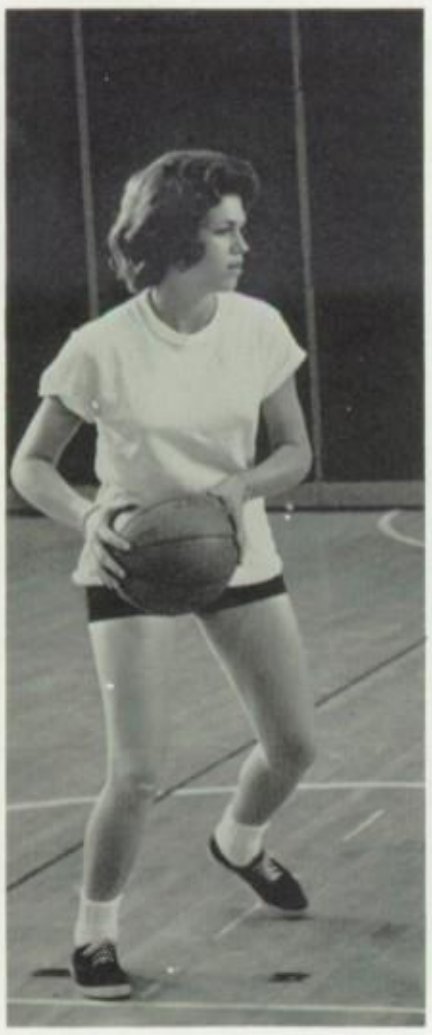
In American history, Pat Welch and Scottie Neal trace the routes of early explorers.

Johnny Fuller, Janice Floyd, and Dennis Jimes can testify that World Geography requires a lot of map work.

Gail Searcy and Patti Cash get ready to tap the ball as Carolyn Moore, Nina Poston and Shirley McCathern watch.

During September, the boys' P.E. classes enjoy football.

Carolyn Moore takes time to decide who to throw the ball to in sixth period P.E.



Gail Searcy enjoys basketball a lot.

P.E. boys exercise their muscles.

Sports

Mona Hemperly makes a skirt in Home Ec. III, using green wool.

Training for Homemaking

Home economics education is directed toward strengthening the home in its role in the education of the young; in the building of character; in maintaining physical, mental, and emotional health, and in providing opportunities for spiritual, and civic growth.

Nancy Sears and Linda Whatley prepare a bulletin board for Home Ec. IV.

Judy Harvey works diligently to complete her skirt on time, constructing it from blue wool.

The Sciences Teach by Doing Experiments

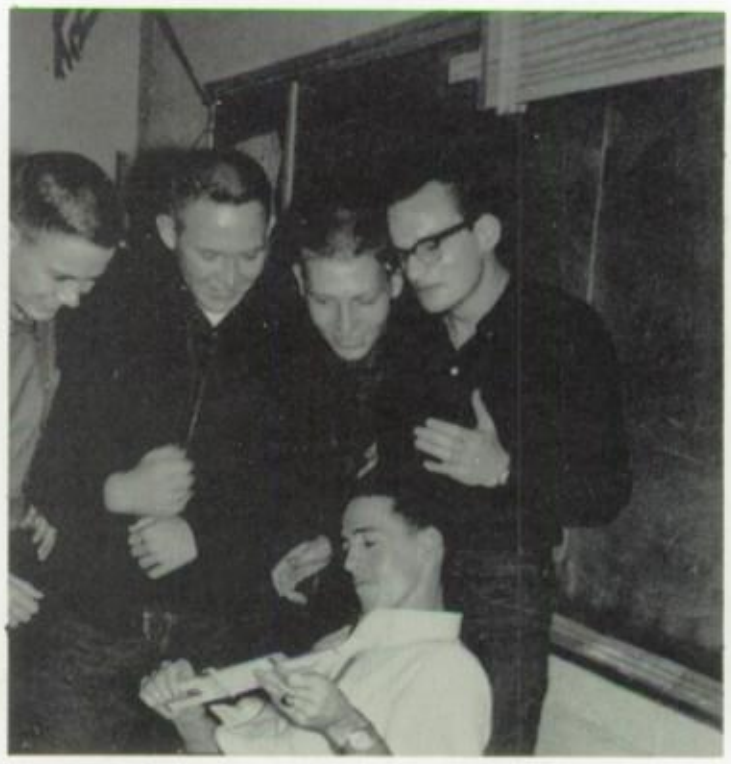
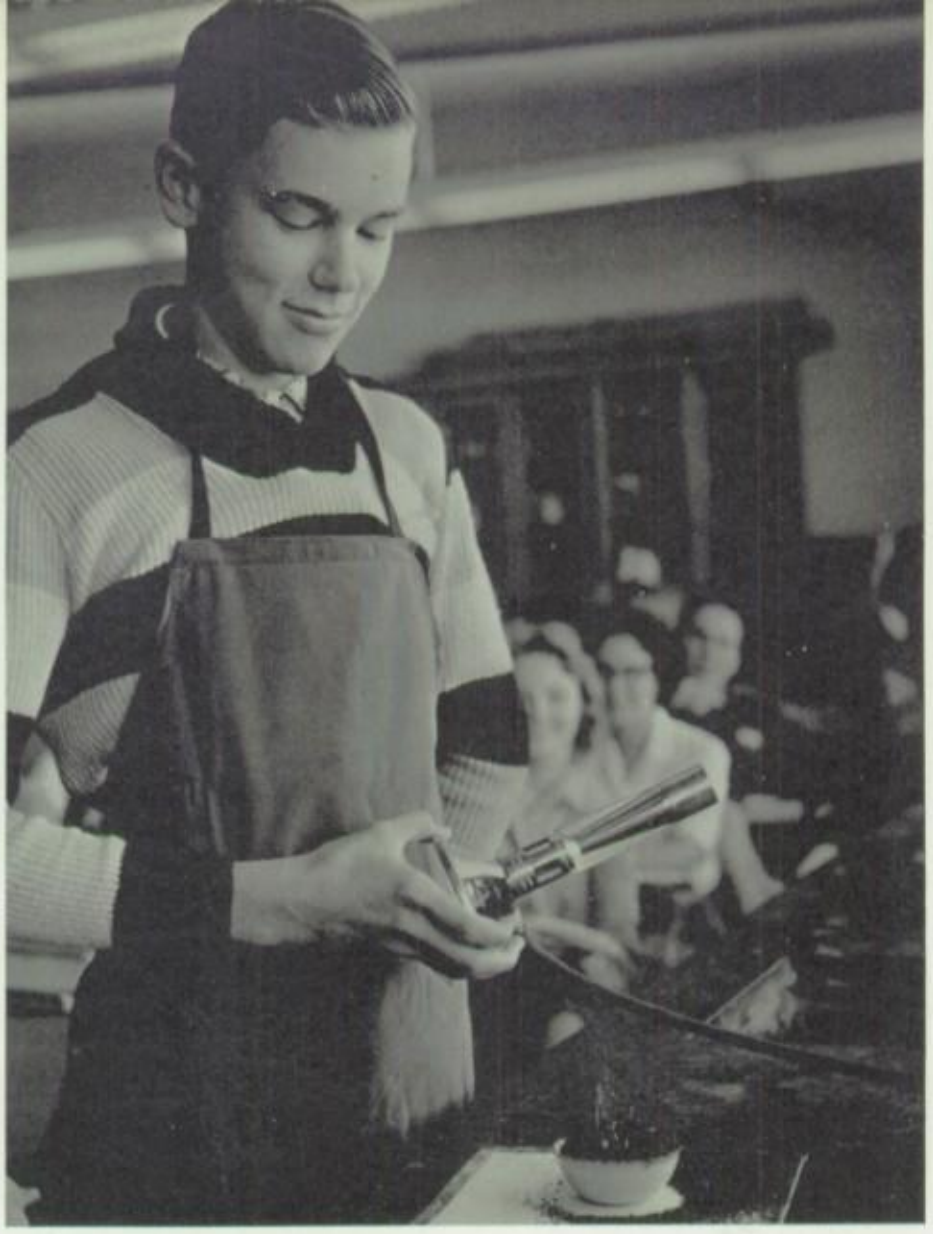
Johnny McCormick and Randy Potter experiment with a fire extinguisher in General Science.



Mr. Oakes explains the slide rule to a group of Chemistry students.

Making distilled water in a science class is Mike McFarland and Carolyn Blackburn.



Rodney Covington is demonstrating how a volcano looks by burning ammonium dichromate.

Patti Cash, Jackie Corn and Linda Wynn enjoy feeding the fish in first period Biology.

Math Develops Correctness

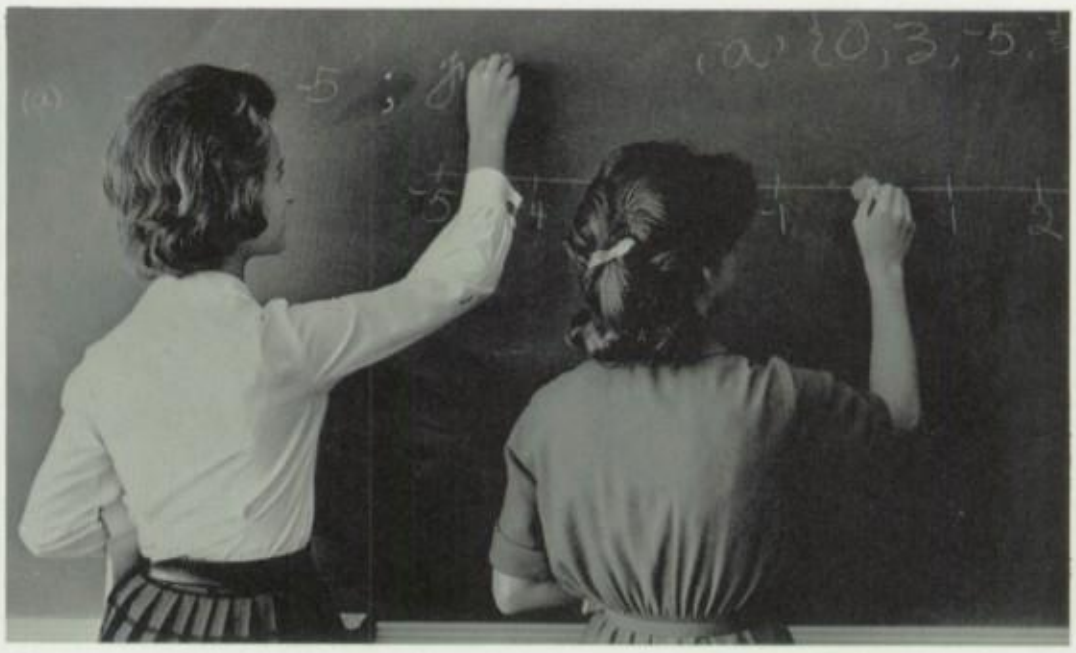
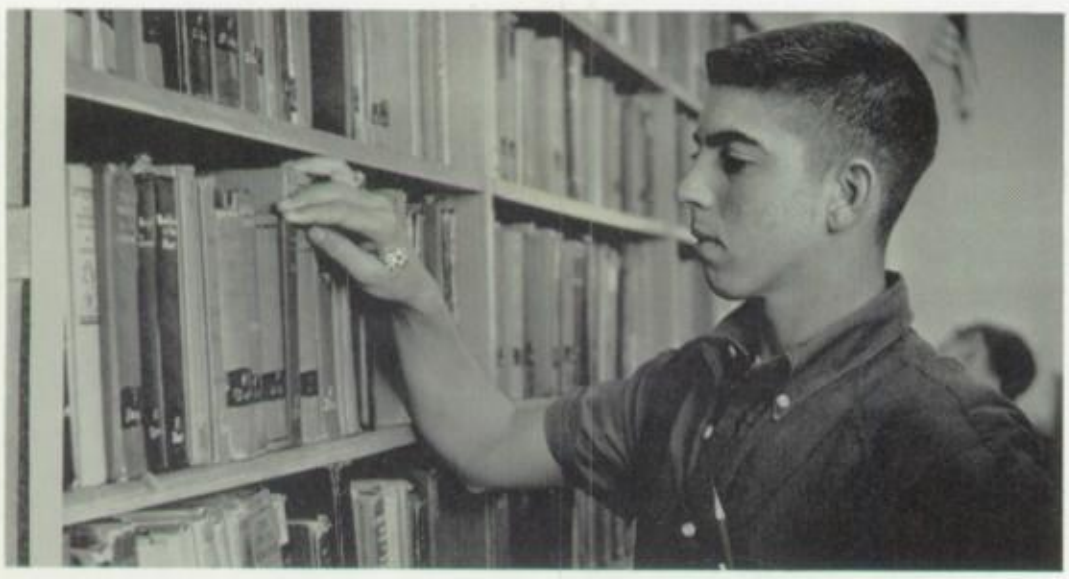
In Trigonometry, Earl Templeton studies different problems.



Charlotte Gascon and Donna Lynn May learn about numbers, lines, equation, and various problems in Algebra.



The Library helps Dicky Martin in research, dictionary work and finding entertainment.

Carolyn Lee sings Christmas carols. One is for the Vesper Program.

Arts and Crafts Stress Skills

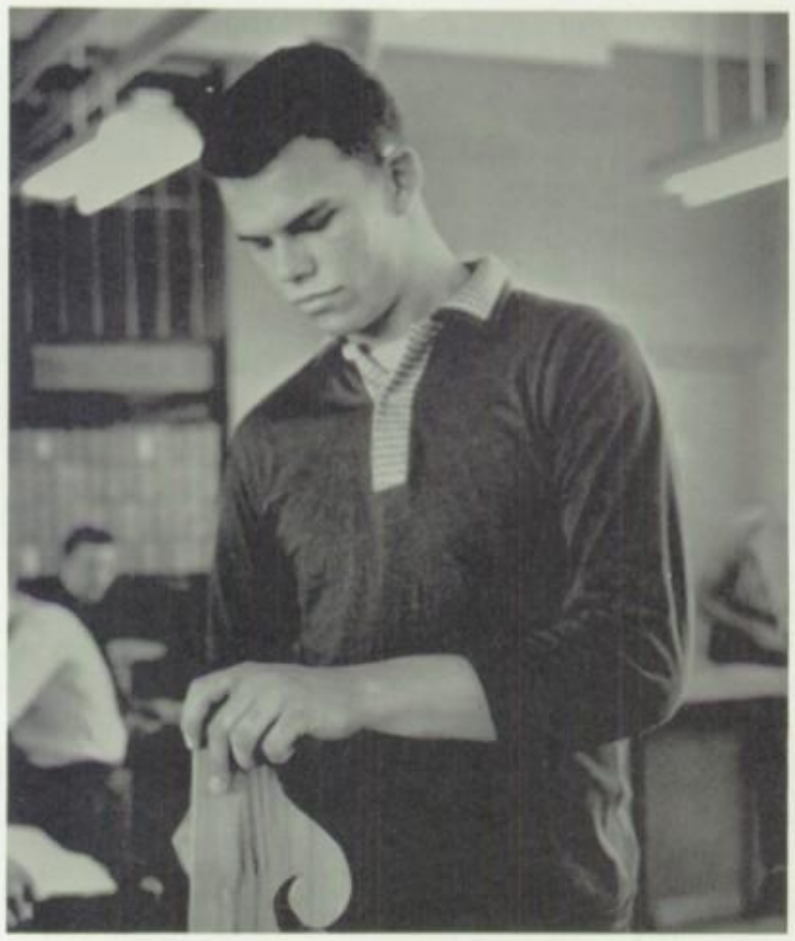
Robert Cline makes himself a billfold. In Industrial Arts, boys learn many different things.



Johnny Alexander enjoys working on woodwork in Industrial Arts.

A. B. Hughey learns the parts of a radio.

In Art, you learn the beauties of creative drawing. Rusty Shaffer, Nancy Courtney, and Lucy Ouzts take art.

North Caddo High School celebrated its seventh annual Homecoming, November 9, 1962. The Queen and her attendants were presented at a pre-game ceremony beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Aisles for the procession were provided by the band formation of four separate squares.

The Homecoming Court was escorted to their places of honor by the fathers of the senior football players and members of the N. C. Sports Club.

Climaxing the presentation was the Queen, Kathy Anthony, escorted by Mr. O. C. Sanders, principal.

The Queen and her court were then seated in the stands for the game with Jesuit.

ELEANOR MAE HALE
GOOD CITIZEN

The Francis Rebecca Harrison Chapter of Vivian sponsored the selection of the GOOD CITIZEN of NORTH CADDO HIGH SCHOOL.

The faculty selects a Senior girl, basing their selection on the following qualifications:

DEPENDABILITY
SERVICE
LEADERSHIP
PATRIOTISM to an outstanding degree.

The Chapter members then approve this selection and the Regent announces the winner at a special assembly.

SPONSOR
Mr. Richard McCluggage

Students that are chosen to be members of the National Honor Society have excelled in scholarship, service to the school, in leadership and in character. The members act as ushers for the North Caddo baccalaureate service and the graduation exercises.

The Honor Society sponsors the Ribbons Day Assembly. Everyone who has maintained a "B" average receives a red ribbon and the "A" average students receive a blue ribbon.

The Society elects their own officers and a "B" average must be kept to maintain membership.

Ed Sigrest
Head Coach

North Caddo finished its eighth year with this season. We of the athletic department feel that we have grown considerably.

Even though the long desired district football championship eluded us again we believe this football team was the best that NC has had.

We finished this season with a fine record of 5 won, 4 lost and our losses were to some real fine teams, like Byrd, Bossier, Springhill and Minden. In the Springhill and Minden games (district) we played without the services of our top three halfbacks. If this misfortune had not hit us, we feel that we would have played in the state playoffs.

We know that we played the toughest schedule in 1962 that North Caddo has ever had.

Coach Sigrest and Johnny Fuller discuss the game.

North Caddo 14, Byrd 20

On September 14 the Byrd Yellow Jackets arrived in Rebel stadium to play one of the toughest and hottest games of the season.

Undoubtedly it was one of the most exciting games of the season. The stands were filled.

The Jackets started the rally off by making the first touchdown in the first quarter. Then in the second quarter they scored again, making it 14 to 0 at the end of the first half.

The Rebels, determined to win a second victory, scored twice in the last half of the game. With only a few minutes left in the game, a Jacket flew over the Rebels, making the final score 20-14.

North Caddo 47, Jesuit 13

Homecoming night of 1962 football season will be a game never forgotten.

The Rebels had 3 District motives to fill: 1. To beat the Blue Flyers for the first time in the history of NC; 2. To make their record 5 wins and 4 lost; and 3. To show the homecoming crowd what a fine team they were.

This they did by beating the Flyers 47-13. Every member of the club took part with the A team doing most of the scoring.

The Rebs also made history by equaling the largest scoring record of the past NC teams.

North Caddo 13, Carthage 0

The Rebs put on two long drives to defeat the Bulldogs at NC on Sept. 21.

The Rebs went into this game trying to break a three year losing streak with the Texans.

The scoring started in the second quarter when the Rebs put up a 60 yard march into Bulldog territory. The score came when Phil Robertson, being defended by the linemen, threw a pass to Dicky Alexander from 12 yards out. Lineman Wayne Gray made the point after touchdown on this score.

The second score came in the last quarter. Bill "Bull" Smith, after leading the game in carrying with 92 yards, crashed over from the 12 yard line and ended the scoring.

North Caddo 14, Bossier 20

"They were just as tough as I thought they would be with all their injured players back. North Caddo has a fine ball club," Coach Maxwell told his Bearkats after they edged the Rebs.

This statement definitely describes the spark and the performance by the Rebs.

After being in the slump for two straight weeks, the Rebs came out on the Bossier gridiron ready to capture the Bearkats.

The Rebs started things off by making the first touchdown. The Bearkats followed suit by making their touchdown in the second quarter, making the score 7-7 at the end of the half. Both the Rebs and the Bearkats scored in the third quarter. Then a Bearkat skated past the Rebels on a kick-off making the final score 13-21.

North Caddo 8, Woodlawn 6

The Rebels, remembering last year's defeat at the hands of the Knights, fought for and received revenge at the State Fair Stadium on September 6, 1962.

The Knights, leading 6-2 at the half, found that they could not contain the fired-up Rebs.

The Knights scored first on a 36 yard march but Rebel Bobby Sartor came through in the second quarter to block a punt and center William Bauer fell on the ball to gain two points on a safety.

In the second half the Rebs came out to dominate the playing with Ryan and Smith of the Rebels doing most of the running.

The Rebels' only touchdown in this game came when Woodlawn fumbled in their own territory and NC recovered the ball. Then, the Rebels' quarterback, Phil Robertson, carried the ball around the end for the touchdown.

The Rebel hardwooders finished their '62-'63 campaign with a not too successful record but it gave valuable experience to all who competed. Under the coaching of Billy Wiggins, the Rebels ended up with a 3-5 district slate. The team didn't let losses break their spirits for they were in there playing hard all the time. The team was led by three seniors, Ronnie Arnold, Louis Howell, and Mike Cox.

The North Caddo High School Band is composed of one hundred and twenty-five members. The philosophy of this group is to promote an appreciation of music which is a part of our everyday life.

The Rebel Band has established a very outstanding record since the opening of North Caddo in 1955. The band has received its share of first division ratings in concert, marching, solo-ensemble, and sight reading. Richard McCluggage, band director, has received many honors while having served as a teacher for twenty-six years in the North Caddo area.

Eleanor Hale and Nancy Sears worked on layouts for the Class and Activity sections.

Sharon Allison and Patti Cash worked hard on the Curriculum and Ad sections.

Dennis Whitfield and Gordon Van Hoose sold ads and helped in the selling of annuals.

Ronnie Arnold, Murray Moore and William Bauer put forth great effort on the Sports section.

Mr. McKenzie, with his camera, was seen everywhere trying to capture the events of the year.

Jeannette Harkness and Don Manners worked to complete the Organization section.

The Southern Accent is published monthly by the students of the Journalism class. Staff members receive their offices on the publication on the basis of their contributions of news writing and their willingness to give of time and service.

The paper is financed by the sale of advertising space to businesses located in the North Caddo area. We appreciate their co-operation and hope their ads have served to establish good relations for them and to enlarge their volumes of business.

It is the sincere desire of the staff to serve the student body by recording in print the stories of all the happenings of each school year.

The Key Club is an international organization of service clubs sponsored by the Kiwanis Clubs. The club is made up of a select group of high school boys whose duty is to perform worthwhile services for the school.

Eight objectives of the Key Club are:

Strengthen spiritual growth.

Preserve our common heritage and ideals.

Put democracy on the offensive.

Inspire intelligent leadership.

Stress higher moral standards.

Promote mental and physical fitness.

Retain the good; reject the inferior.

One of North Caddo Key Club's major projects was the annual "Miss Christmas Contest," a "male" beauty contest presented to collect food for the needy people of the area.

The Key Club sponsored the New Year's Dance and built the props for the Homecoming game with Jesuit.

A group of girls jump for the ball.

Office Workers and Stage Managers

Glenda Pittman

The office is kept in sufficient order with the help of eleven girls. These girls have given up either their study hall of their O.P. period to aid Mrs. Hartline. Some of their duties are to pick up absentee slips, record the persons absent on a record, answer the phone and many more helpful jobs.

Sherry Reed, Linda Nottingham, Darlene Warner.

Shelia Cline, Pat Dumas, Ann Saulsberry.

The four stage managers help to arrange chairs for assemblies, set up the microphone, work the stage lights and keep the record player in a working condition.

Mike Ryan, Douglas Pearson, Murray Moore, and Roger Cook.

Carol Ann Davis, Lucille Burks, and Mrs. Hartline.

Sharon Farmer and Judy Floyd.

Custodians and Cafeteria Workers

Our school could not function properly without the help of the custodians or the cafeteria workers.

The custodians make it possible for us to have clean rooms and a clear campus every day.

While on the other hand the cafeteria workers make it possible for us to have a good, wholesome meal and a clean lunch room to dine in.

We are indeed indebted to these two groups.

W. C. Catteberry and Sam Sharp.

SEATED: Everlena Riley. STANDING: Hattie Herndon, Willie Mae Sharp, and Sarah Henderson.

Lee Ethel Graham, Margaret Williams, Emma Dawson, Katie Bell.

Miss Brown's door won 1st place.
